

Business Partner

Website Page

Colonial Life is an industry leader with more than 75 years of voluntary benefits experience in providing innovative benefits solutions in one neat package: excellence in communications, superior enrollment options, personal insurance products and services that make benefits count for employers and their employees alike.

Colonial Life doesn't just offer benefits. They listen to your needs and help you understand what type of benefits may work best for your company, and help your employees better understand and appreciate the benefits you make available to them.

Available to you is a robust benefits communication and education service designed to help you communicate:

- Core benefits
- Plan redesigns
- Premium changes and effect on paychecks
- Voluntary benefit choices
- Employee's "hidden paycheck"
- The overall value of benefits
- What employers contribute to their employees' benefits
- Available wellness programs
- Wellness screening benefits

Personal Insurance Products

Each individual's lifestyle and needs are different from the next. Personal insurance products from Colonial Life offer a broad range of benefit options for your employees and their families, and many can help you combat the rising cost of health care.

Contact us today to schedule an appointment so we may review in greater detail how these innovative solutions can help ensure you are getting the most return on your benefits investment.

Colonial Life is based in Columbia, S.C., and is a subsidiary of Unum Group. Colonial Life offers a comprehensive portfolio of group and individual supplemental insurance products, end-to-end enrollment support and flexible enrollment capabilities, benefits communication and education services and more, all backed by best-in-class service.